

Virtual VE DAY 75 Celebrations

Decorate Your Home

Let's decorate our homes and windows with Union Jacks and Bunting. You can make your own special VE Day 75 'Great British Bunting' to display in your windows or garden. Please search 'Great British Bunting' for some instructions, templates and ideas from the BBC. There are also some templates for you to print & colour in on Bredon Parish Website:- www.bredonpc.org.uk/news-events/VEDay75

11am - Two Minute Silence

At 11am on Friday 8 May, BBC One will lead a poignant two-minute silence to mark the 75th anniversary of the end of the Second World War. This national moment of remembrance will pay tribute to heroes of the past and present.

2:30pm - Afternoon Tea / Picnic

Have a cup of tea or picnic with neighbours, please remember social distancing rules by staying in your own garden/drive. Why not set up a table and chairs, or a picnic blanket, in your front garden or on your drive. Bake cakes or scones to have with your beverages. You could even dress up in 1940's outfits or just your smartest clothes. At 3pm we can all take part in the 'Nation's Toast to the Heroes of WW2'. Please share any photos on the Bredon Parish Noticeboard (Facebook) or other social media using #VEDay75.

9pm - Queen's Speech & Singalong

Join in at 9pm on Friday 8 May for a UK-wide rendition of Dame Vera Lynn's 'We'll Meet Again' to mark the 75th anniversary of VE Day. As we face some of the most challenging times since the end of the Second World War, now more than ever it is important to come together and unite. We need you and as many people as possible to take part in this national moment of thanksgiving and celebration, in honour of our Second World War generation. You can watch and join in on BBC One who will be featuring the singalong as part of their VE Day broadcast.
